

Commercial Electric Vehicle Test Bedding Program Application Form

evHUB is proud to launch an exclusive EV Test Bedding Fleet Program for green commercial fleet mobility. In this program, a select group of qualified industry partners will get an opportunity to purchase and operate Singapore's first fleet of modern electric vehicles in support of their daily operational requirements by mid 2011. These are fully converted, retrofitted and approved commercial vehicles (by LTA) developed based on state of the art high efficiency A/C propulsion systems. Partners will immediately enjoy the benefits of fuel and emission free mobility.
